FARM MEETING FOUND SUCCESS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 .- The tional agricultural conference which concluded a five days session here Friday was characterized by Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture in his closing address as "The most representative gathering of ag-riculture" ever held. It has been a good thing for the farmers and the alited interests, he declared, adding that the farmers and the related interests

"must co-operate to put agriculture on a sound and enduring basis." "This conference," the secretary "This conference," the secretary continued, "has gained ground and I think we can hold that ground. We have presented constructive suggestions not only for the present but for the working out of a sound agricultural policy for years to come."

Before adjourning, resolutions were adonted thanking President Harding first basemen who are perhaps mor-flashy than Kelly, but the big fel-low plays a mighty acceptable first. The Detroit team had trouble with those two spots last year, and as a result the Tigers didn't do very well.

All of which leads us up to the question as to which club in the major leagues has the best infield defense.

In addition McGraw has Rawlings in reserve. Rawlings is a mighty good man to have around, as he can fill in anywhere on the infield with the exception of first base. He is the aggressive type so much in favor with McGraw.

The addition of Heine Groh to the New York Giants just about bring that honor to McGraw's aggregation.

There are a number of other good infields in the two leagues, but it is doubtful if any of them will quite measure up to the standard set by the Giants.
